● TERMS & CONDITIONS.

Joining fee and payment details must be received before membership can be activated.

It is not possible to change an existing membership to another person.

Members and Guest must abide by the rules and regulations of the Burrendale Hotel & Country Club.

Wearing Sport Strips or clothing of which may offend other members is not permitted in The Club.

If you are a member paying by direct debit it will be listed on your bank details as payment on the 15th of every month. Unfortunately, we are unable to change the date of Direct Debits. We would however like to point out that the payment may be taken from your account several days before this.

If you wish to cancel your direct debit we will need this in writing. This needs to be with us the first week of the month you wish to cancel, later than this can result in payment for another month.

Direct Debits agreements must be set with your bank in advance of collection. In some cases we may require the first month's payment on joining.

If payments are not received from your bank we will call for 2 payments the following month.

Outstanding payments will result in cancellation of membership.

Refunds are not available for membership paid in full.

A £50.00 administration fee is required for all members wishing to rejoin after cancellation.
